MARY CATHERINE BEARD attended Bryan in 1934-35 and married Allen Mims in 1943. She lived in Georgia for about ten years, then returned to Bryan where Allen worked as a teacher and administrator for 22 years. Their daughter, Mary Catherine, attended Bryan and is now teaching in Monmouth, Iowa. She and her husband, Allen F. Mims, have three children: Mary, Allen and John.

REBA ARNOLD married Clyde FITZGERALD in 1946 and taught school and college. She completed the B.S. degree at Bryan in 1960 and taught first grade for eight years at Frasier School, Rhea County. The children are Clyde Jr., Baptist pastor; Arnold, pastor, and salesman; and Rebecca, home economics teacher.

MILDRED COOLEY married Kelly EVANS and continues to live in Spring City, Tenn. She has taught for 36 years in Rhea County. Mrs. Cooley was a member of the Bryan Class of 1935. She and her husband have three children: Mary, Glenda and James.

PAMELA JENSEN attended Bryan in the 1960s and married Richard Jensen in 1965. She is currently teaching in the English Department at Memphis State University. The Jensens have two children: Jason and Sarah.

WILLIAM LOGAN RECTOR married Helen Kyle soon after his graduation at Bryan. He served in the military for several years during World War II and the family lived in Mobile, Ala., where he first met his wife. After retiring to Dyersburg, Mr. Rector has been owner of and manager of an insurance agency in Dyersburg for twenty-five years. He has been active in civic responsibilities as manager of the Dyersburg County Improvement Commission at 1940; president of Greater Dyersburg-Dyer County Chamber of Commerce in 1966; vice president of Dyersburg Housing in 1967; and member of several other community and educational committees. He has been active in the Baptist Church since 1942 and in Bryan and is listed in the Outstanding Civic Leaders of America, 1967. The Rectors have been active in the First Baptist Church where Mr. Rector is deacon and Sunday school teacher. They have five children: Zane Kyle, military; Anna Brown, housewife; William; business; Hal Voy, teaching; and Pamela Sue, college student.

BEN PURSER is a life-time resident of Dayton, who had one year of college at Bryan. He began his career in the Southern Baptist Convention in 1939. He has been active in the Chamber of Commerce in his business, and has served as the secretary-treasurer of the Rotary Club, of which he is currently president. He has also been faithful as a member of the First United Methodist Church, where he is a deacon, trustee, member of the pastor-parish committee, and director of congregational music in Sunday school and church. He and his wife, Mary Agnes [Hogue] '35 have two children, Mary Anne and Paul.

MISSIONARY NEWS

Care and GRACE (THEOBALD) x'46 McGUIRE are completing the preparation of a didgot Telay printing project with Chinese characters to be left for offset printing in Taiwan before the end of February. They are also sending through in the summer. They hope to have a Christmas reunion with STERLING THEOBALD x'50 and family and PAUL THEOBALD x'43 and family, who are both stationed in Camdenton, Mo. Their father is 91 this spring. Young Tim McGUIRE is taking grade 13 in Canada and hopes to transfer to the University of Regina to study computer science.

DALMAIN x'50 and Sylvia CONDON arrived in April to move to Fartoogie Cottages in Vernon, N. J. Their daughter, Debbie, plans to move to the College of the Rockies near her parents.

PAUL x'55 and Jane ARDELENE expect to leave about August 1 to assume teaching duties in Brasilia, Brazil, under Wyckille Bible Translators. They were there in 1969-71 as part of their two-year short-term service with Wyckille until they returned in 1971 to their home in Wayne, Mich., where Paul has been teaching. Their daughter Janet will be starting high school, Martha will enter 8th grade, and Greg will begin 5th. Jane will be teaching in addition to the duties.

Roger and NAOMI (HILDEBRAND) x'55 WALKWITZ report that they are encouraged to see the growth of IBIBA Bible Fellowship in Baguio City, Philippines. They are supporting their own work plus their first full-time student, Carlyn, in her second year as a missionary. Roger was elected to Field Council at the beginning of their two-year term which means more trips to Manila where their sons are students at Faith Academy, Ray and Kevin. They find this winter has been colder than any they have experienced. Paul's birthday was celebrated on January 10, 1974, and they are looking now at the possibilities of moving to a new location.

SANDY CUE x'55 began furlough on May 1 from Brazil in time to join her family in Texas for her brother's high school graduation and her sister's wedding. Among the Wyckilles in Brazil, prayer is needed for their two-year home duties.
